Strolling through:

"Charity is a poor substitute for justice."

Martin Luther King, Jr., quoted by Michael Edward Dyson in Tears We Cannot Stop, p. 122

"Justice is what love sounds like when it speaks in public."

Michael Edward Dyson, op.cit., p. 100

"In today's political reality, we can't afford not to work together."

George Lakey, in How We Win

"Knowledge is only rumor until it lives in the bones."

Proverb from the Araro people of Papua New Guinea

"We must learn to live together as brothers or perish together as fools."

MLK Jr

"We are here to awaken from the illusion of our separateness."

Thich Nhat Hanh

"If we cannot love our neighbor as ourself, it is because we do not perceive our neighbor as ourself." Beatrice Bruteau

"We are called to be larger than who we can imagine being in this moment."

Richard Rohr
