Poem*: "How can we?"

How can we break bread?

and not remember those who have no bread?

How can we meet together?

and not remember those separated
from their families and friends?

How can we shelter here?

and not remember those whose only shelter
is a refugee camp or a cardboard box?

How can we speak of peace

and not remember those whose peace is shattered
by constant fear and the rattle of guns?

How can we sing our hymns

and not remember those who cannot openly express their religious beliefs?

How can we offer our gifts

and not remember those who are caught in the never-ending cycle of poverty and debt? (cont'd)

How can we pour wine

and not remember those who are imprisoned
by addiction to bottle, needles, or pills?

How can we celebrate

and not remember those who suffer
from depression, mental illness, or grief?

God of human experience, born in a stable in Bethlehem,
Spirit alive in us today,

In our breaking of bread and pouring of wine,
may we look outwards to the suffering of our world,
remembering the hope of your shalom. Amen.

Joys, Concerns, Prayers

Prayer of intercession*:

Let us pray in Christian unity. O God,

You love justice and establish peace on earth.
We bring before you the disunity of today's world;

(3)

the absurd violence, and the many wars,
which are breaking the courage of the people of the world:
militarism and pollution, which threaten life on the planet;
human greed and injustice, which breed hatred and strife.
For what else shall we pray? (prayers welcomed)

Send Your Spirit and renew the face of the earth;
Teach us to be compassionate towards the whole human family;
Strengthen the will of all those who fight for justice
and for peace;
lead all nations into the path of peace,
and give us that peace which he world cannot give. Amen.
